

Entertainment.

THEATRE ROYAL,
Mr. JOHN F. SHERIDAN, Proprietor.
Mr. F. H. POLLACK, Business Manager.

Return of the Great Success
JOHN F. SHERIDAN
AND HIS MATCHLESS COMPANY, FOR A FEW NIGHTS ONLY.

COMMENCING

THIS EVENING,

WEDNESDAY, the 15th June, 1887, will be produced for the First time in Hongkong.

AN ENTIRELY NEW PROGRAMME, which in consequence of this limited Season can only be produced for ONE NIGHT ONLY.

To commence with the Musical Comedietta,

'IRISH STRATEGY.'

Paddy O'Connor, Mr. JOHN F. SHERIDAN

With Songs—'Pat McCann,' 'No Irish need
Apply,' and 'The Whistling Thief.'

Doctor Brown, with song, 'Grand-father
Bon' ... Mr. ALFRED HOLLAND.

Henry (the Son) with Song, 'To-day I'm Twenty-one' ... Mr. MARY HAGAN.

Job (a Servant) ... Mr. B. MORGAN.

Mrs. Fidget, with Song, 'Mr. and Mrs.
Brown' ... Miss LUCY FEASER.

Jane (her Daughter) with Song, 'True love from o'er the Sea,' from 'Rip Van Winkle' ... Miss MAY MELVILLE.

Followed by a Miscellaneous Musical Olio.

Nautical Song—'Jack the Yarn' ... 'The Fowler Monkey.'

Character Song—'I'm going old for that now' ... Mr. HAGAN.

Song—'Stick to your Mother, Tom,' (by request) ... Miss FEASER.

Song—'Sweet Laveno,' Mr. HOLLAND.

Song—'Home Sweet Home,'

Miss MAY MELVILLE.

The Evening's Entertainment to conclude with the Negro Picture of Slave life in America in 1860, when the Slaves would gather together to sing their own quaint

Songs and indulge in amusements of their own peculiar kind. Miss Sheridan has chosen this picture from the numerous stories

by Harriet Beecher Stowe, entitled,

'UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.'

SCENE—THE CABIN OR HUT OF UNCLE TOM.

Characters.

Tony—Her great character, in which she has no equal, introducing Negro Melodies with the pure Southern voice, action, &c., Miss MAY LIVINGSTON.

Uncle Tom—the faithful Slave,

Mr. E. C. DUNBAR.

Washington Crispie, Mr. ALFRED HOLLAND.

Estates Hardwick, Mr. MARY HAGAN.

Brother Gardner ... Mr. OLIVER MORGAN.

Waydown Bebe ... Mr. HENRY DELMAINE.

Sarah Washington ... Miss LUCY FEASER.

Sophia Green ... Mr. ALFRED HOLLAND.

Anna ... Mr. B. MORGAN.

Bobby ... Mr. JOHN F. SHERIDAN.

Incidental to this Scene will be introduced:

'The old Kentucky Home,' 'COMPANY.'

'Pharaoh's Army,' Mr. DUNBAR.

'My old Cabin Home,' Miss FEASER.

'Watch da river rollin,' Mr. HOLLAND.

'Hush, little baby, don't cry,'

Miss LIVINGSTON.

'Steal away' ... Mr. SHERIDAN.

'Take me home' ... Mr. HAGAN.

'Tom tell us what we're going to do'

Miss LIVINGSTON and Mr. DUNBAR.

'Home once more' ... Miss MELVILLE.

'Keep a movin' ... Mr. HAGAN.

'One more river to cross,' COMPANY.

'Hello, Baby'—Song and Dance,

Mr. SHERIDAN.

'Dancing in the Barn'

Miss HAGAN and Miss MELVILLE.

Concluding with Chorus and Dance by the Entire Company.

Doors open at 8.30. Commence at 9 p.m.

PRICES OF ADMISSION:

Dress Circle and Stalls, 32.

Back Seats, 21.

Soldiers and Soldiers half price.

Box Play now open at MESSRS. LANE,
CRAWFORD & CO.'s.

THURSDAY EVENING,
'NAP.'

FRIDAY EVENING,
'PEA DIABLO.'

SATURDAY EVENING,
'FUN ON THE BUSTOL.'

W. TIEVY, - Musical Director.

W. ALLEN, - Agent.

Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1133

To-day's Advertisements.

NORDDEUTSCHE LLOYD.

NOTICE.

STEAM TO SHANGHAI.

The Co.'s Steamship Braunschweig, Captain Schäfer, will leave for the above place
TO-MORROW (THURSDAY), the 16th Inst., at 3 p.m.

For Freight or Passage, apply to
MELCHERS & Co., Agents.

Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1134

DOUGLAS STEAMSHIP COMPANY, LIMITED.

FOR SWATOW, AMOY & FOOCHEW.

The Co.'s Steamship Heidelberg, Captain S. Ashton, will be despatched for the above Ports on SATURDAY, the 18th Instant, at Noon.

For Freight or Passage, apply to
JARDINE, MATHESON & Co.,
Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1135

GLEN LINE OF STEAM PACKETS.

FOR LONDON VIA SUEZ CANAL.

The Steamship Glenorchy, Captain G. Moore, will be despatched as above on or about the 27th Instant.

For Freight or Passage, apply to
JARDINE, MATHESON & Co.,
Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1136

STEAM TO NAGASAKI.

The P. & O. S. N. Co.'s Steamship Lombardy, will have quick despatch for the above Port.

For Freight or Passage, apply to
E. L. WOODIN,
Acting Superintendent.

P. & O. S. N. Co.'s Office,
Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1137

HONGKONG, CANTON AND MACAO
STEAMBOAT COMPANY,
LIMITED.CHEAP EXCURSION TO MACAO
AND BACK.

WEATHER permitting, the WHITE CLOUD will leave HONGKONG on SUNDAY, the 19th Inst., at 9 a.m., returning from MACAO at Midnight.

First Class Fare to MACAO and back, $2.

No Second Class or Single Fares. Chinese Servants, 50 Cents each way. Noチヒ will be taken.

Tickets may be obtained at the Company's OFFICE.

By Order,

F. HENDERSON,
Acting Secretary.

Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1138

NORDDEUTSCHER LLOYD.

NOTICE TO CONSIGNEES.

STEAMSHIP BRAUNSCHWEIG
FROM BREMEN AND PORTS OF CALL.

THE above-named Steamer having arrived, Consignees of Cargo are hereby informed that their Goods, with the exception of Opium, Treasures and Valuables, are being landed and stored at their risk into the Godowns of the HONGKONG AND KOWLOON WHARF AND GODOWN COMPANY, LTD., Kowloon, whence delivery may be obtained.

Cargo from NEW YORK or a.s. a Fuda Twee and Scale, has come forward by this Steamer.

OPTIONAL CARGO will be landed here in Hongkong unless notice to the contrary be given before 4 p.m. on THURSDAY, the 15th Inst.

No Claims will be admitted after the Goods have left the Godowns, and all Goods remaining after the 25th Instant, will be subject to rent.

All broken, chafed, and damaged Goods are to be left in the Godowns, where they will be examined on THURSDAY, the 23rd

June at 4 p.m.

All Goods must reach us before the 24th Instant, or they will not be recognized.

No Fire Insurance has been effected.

Bills of Lading will be countersigned by

MELCHERS & Co., Agents.

Hongkong, June 15, 1887. 1139

SHIPPING.

ARRIVALS.

JUNE 15, 1887.—

Taiyuan, British steamer, 2,349, Dodd,

Newcastle (N.S.W.) May 28, General and Coal.—BUTTERFIELD & SWARNS.

Kungpui, Chinese steamer, 607, J. B.
Bissel, Chefoo June 8, Baama in Bok
C. M. S. N. Co.

Pathein, British steamer, 1,496, Brook
Leith April 30, Ballast.—H. R. C. & M. S.
Co.

Braunschweig, German steamer, 2,160,
Sonthofen, B. Suez 23, Aden 28, Colombo
4, and Singapore 10, Malls and General Merchandise & Co.

Lombardy, British steamer, 1,726, G. O.
Brookes, Penang June 6, and Singapore 9,
General.—P. & O. S. N. Co.

Haiphong, British str. 1,122, S. Ashton, Fowchow June 12, Amoy 13, and Swatow

14.—GENERAL—DOUGLAS STEAMSHIP CO.

DEPARTURES.

JUNE 15.—

Yangtze, for Whampoa.

Greyhound, for Huihoo.

Deputation, for Amoy and Shanghai.

Kungpui, for Shanghai.

Zifoo, for Amoy and Manila.

Tsotow, for Coast Ports.

Tsotow, for Saigon.

Java, for Kuchingpo.

Canton, for Kowloon.

The British steamer Chefoo went into the Amoy Dock on the 10th inst.

H. L. G. M. S. P. of, Commander Jaschka, left Amoy on the 11th inst. for Shanghai.

To celebrate the Queen's Jubilee, a large newspaper is to be started in Shanghai. The title of it is, we believe, Our Leisure Hours, and the first number will appear on the 21st instant. The paper is intended for private circulation.—N. C. D. News.

At a meeting of British residents, held on the 7th instant, at H. B. M.'s Consulate, Chin-kiang, E. L. Oxenham, Esq., in the chair, it was resolved to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee on the 21st inst. The following gentlemen kindly consented to act on the Committee:—Musa Hance, Jordin, Grogan, Dr. White, and E. L. Oxenham (Executive Officer). The following resolution was proposed and passed:

That the celebration shall begin with the despatch by telegraph of a congratulatory message to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen; to be followed by a service of thanksgiving at the American Methodist Episcopal Chapel, at 11 a.m.; service to be conducted by Mr Little, a British subject belonging to the Mission. That the Queen's House and houses of business be asked to close on that day. That a dinner shall be provided in the grounds of the British Consulate and that the whole of the community be invited irrespective of nationality. To illustrate the Queen's Jubilee, there will be a pyrotechnic display on the Bund. The cost is to be defrayed by the Shanghai Municipality.—Shanghai Mercury.

The Shanghai Courier says:—We understand that the Jubilee Celebration Committee, through its indefatigable Secretary, have invited the various Masonic bodies in Shanghai to take part officially in the procession on Jubilee Day, which is to follow the services in the Cathedral. The idea is a good one, but can it be carried out? Under certain circumstances it can, but there are great difficulties in the way. One of the greatest of these difficulties is that a man cannot appear in the procession as a Volunteer and as a Mason. We may be induced to give the chance of placing an alibi or bringing evidence in support of their innocence. It is to be desired that the Chinese may be given a chance to do this. The cost is to be defrayed by the Shanghai Municipality.

THE LOSS OF THE GERMAN BARQUINNE "WILHELM WEYER."

The Amoy Gazette says:—Advices from Tai-pan-fo announce the destruction, by fire, of the above-named vessel in the harbour. Taken on the morning of Saturday the 4th instant, it appears that the schooner was ready to load at 10 a.m. on the 30th last, having 5,400 bags Sugar for Yokohama. At 4 a.m., the Captain was awakened by a dense volume of smoke rising from the afterdeck, and soon after the alarm had been given, it was found that the fire was beyond all control. In a short space of time the whole vessel seemed to be enveloped in flames and smoke and it was with difficulty that the Captain and crew escaped, not a package of cargo being saved. The services of a Na. Tai-pan were employed to tow the schooner to the sand-bank opposite the Club, but at the first attempt the hawser caught fire, and parted. After some trouble a rope was made fast to the anchor chain, and the vessel towed into shore. Before sunset the schooner was totally destroyed, it having been impossible to save the community, from the first, to render assistance, with the limited resources at their command. We understand that the ship is insured in a German office and that two Chinese companies share the loss on the sugar, valued at about twenty thousand dollars.

THE RENDITION CASE.

The well-reasoned and clear judgment pronounced yesterday in the Supreme Court in the appeal against the Rendition Case is a great contribution towards the solution of a difficulty that has been for long a source of trouble and perplexity to the Colony. There can be no doubt that this Colony is resorted to as a convenient harbour of refuge by some of the worst characters that infest the neighbouring coast of China, and quite recently the Government has shown an increased readiness to facilitate by every means possible the transference of these lawless residents to the authorities that are in search of them. The ruffians who have fled here from justice do not come, we may rest assured, to repeat of and make, atonement for their sins, but to find a safer sphere for the display of their skill and talent in all forms of wickedness. It is therefore essential to the peace and welfare of the colony that means should be found of getting rid of this scourge of China as quickly as possible. Unfortunately, however, we have to deal with a country where the most common principles of justice this guide Europeans, even to most of the highest officials in the land, and are totally strange to the petty Mandarins sent over here to request the rendition of prisoners. To hand over prisoners to these men without a satisfactory trial would be to endanger the security and the lives of many of our peaceful citizens, and my neighbouring mandarins, if he had a stroke of him, might bring up a charge and come over here and demand their rendition.

The law, therefore, as set forth in Ordinance 2 of 1851, very justly requires that the Magistrate before whom such a case is brought shall, in view of it in the same manner as if the accused were charged with a crime or indictable offence committed within the Colony, and shall only commit the accused when there is "probable cause" for believing him guilty. Magistrates, however, have had great difficulty in construing this clause and have been compelled in a series of trials to decide what is the meaning of these cases that have lately come before them. The difficult question to solve was what was the extent of proof that were entitled to demand. In the most recent case, which has just been decided, this perplexity was keenly felt. The Magistrate had a mass of evidence before him, which he suspected to be tainted, and he was endeavouring, although certainly not in a very legal fashion, to obtain light on the evidence. Suddenly, however, the Executive Government, through the Attorney General, interfered in the case, and the Magistrate was compelled to allow the prisoners to remain in their cells.

The difficult question to solve was what was the extent of proof that were entitled to demand. In the most recent case, which has just been decided, this perplexity was keenly felt. The Magistrate had a mass of evidence before him, which he suspected to be tainted, and he was endeavouring, although certainly not in a very legal fashion, to obtain light on the evidence. Suddenly, however, the Executive Government, through the Attorney General, interfered in the case, and the Magistrate was compelled to allow the prisoners to remain in their cells.

The principle laid down by the Attorney General for the guidance of the Magistrate was a very dangerous one. It practically amounted to this—that a mandarin of China might come to this Colony with a number of witnesses he had brought with him, and bring a charge against one or more Chinese residents here, and that the Magistrate, instead of calling in the police to inquire into their defence, should, instead, place them in the uncomforable and awkward position of finding a prima facie case against the prisoner on evidence which he denied himself. He had great reason to suspect that the celebration would begin with the despatch by telegraph of a congratulatory message to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen; to be followed by a service of thanksgiving at the American Methodist Episcopal Chapel, at 11 a.m.; service to be conducted by Mr Little, a British subject belonging to the Mission. That the Queen's House and houses of business be asked to close on that day. That a dinner shall be provided in the grounds of the British Consulate and that the whole of the community be invited irrespective of nationality. To illustrate the Queen's Jubilee, there will be a pyrotechnic display on the Bund. The cost is to be defrayed by the Shanghai Municipality.—Shanghai Mercury.

The Shanghai Courier says:—We understand that the Jubilee Celebration Committee, through its indefatigable Secretary, have invited the various Masonic bodies in Shanghai to take part officially in the procession on Jubilee Day, which is to follow the services in the Cathedral. The idea is a good one, but can it be carried out? Under certain circumstances it can, but there are great difficulties in the way. One of the greatest of these difficulties is that a man cannot appear in the procession as a Volunteer and as a Mason. We may be induced to give the chance of placing an alibi or bringing evidence in support of their innocence. It is to be desired that the Chinese may be given a chance to do this. The cost is to be defrayed by the Shanghai Municipality.

THE LOSS OF THE GERMAN BARQUINNE "WILHELM WEYER."

The Amoy Gazette says:—Advices from Tai-pan-fo announce the destruction, by fire, of the above-named vessel in the harbour. Taken on the morning of Saturday the 4th instant, it appears that the schooner was ready to load at 10 a.m. on the 30th last, having 5,400 bags Sugar for Yokohama. At 4 a.m., the Captain was awakened by a dense volume of smoke rising from the afterdeck, and soon after the alarm had been given, it was found that the fire was beyond all control. In a short space of time the whole vessel seemed to be enveloped in flames and smoke and it was with difficulty that the Captain and crew escaped, not a package of cargo being saved. The services of a Na. Tai-pan were employed to tow the schooner to the sand-bank opposite the Club, but at the first attempt the hawser caught fire, and parted. After some trouble a rope was made fast to the anchor chain, and the vessel towed into shore. Before sunset the schooner was totally destroyed, it having been impossible to save the community, from the first, to render assistance, with the limited resources at their command. We understand that the ship is insured in a German office and that two Chinese companies share the loss on the sugar, valued at about twenty thousand dollars.

THE HOUGH-LEGG SHARE CASE.

The following is the full judgment pronounced by Sir R. T. Rennie, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Shanghai, on the 9th inst. in the action Robert Hough v. William Legge, of which we gave the result yesterday.

This is a suit brought to recover damages for the non-delivery of 50 shares in the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation which the plaintiff alleges that he purchased of the defendant in the month of January 1883. The defendant denies having sold or contracted to sell any such shares to the plaintiff in respect to them.

The plaintiff's case as sustained by the evidence he produced is as follows:—The defendant being a resident in Hongkong, employed one A. L. Lindsay, trading at Shanghai under the style of P. Maclean & Co., as his attorney and agent for the purchase and sale of shares in Shanghai, and on the 16th and 18th December 1882 Lindsay, through one E. H. Gore-Booth, a shareholder in Shanghai, sold to J. A. Taylor 125 shares in dividends, bonus, and new shares on account of the defendant.

The contract notes for these shares were worded as follows:—No. 244, dated 16th Dec. 1882. Seller—Messrs. P. Maclean & Co. as agents. Purchaser—J. A. Taylor, Esq., 75 Hongkong Bank shares at 187 per cent. prem. (from Hongkong) cum all dividend, bonus and new shares. Delivery 31st Dec. 1882. Payment usual on delivery. Commission half per cent. i.e. Measra P. M. & Co.

No. 244, dated 18th Dec. 1882. Seller—Messrs. P. Maclean & Co. Purchaser—J. A. Taylor, Esq., 75 Hongkong Bank shares at 187 per cent. prem. (from Hongkong) cum all div. bonus and new shares. Delivery very 31st Dec. 1882. Payment on delivery. Commission half per cent. i.e. Measra P. M. & Co. On the 12th January 1883.

Both under instructions to sell given to him by Taylor resold these shares 100 of which were purchased by the plaintiff.

The defendant on or at some time before the 31st December forwarded to Shanghai a document of documents representing 125 shares in the Bank and draw upon Mr Justice Willes said: "I do not think it necessary to rely on the contra of the Stock Exchange except so far as this: I agree with Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange." In the same case Mr Justice Montague Smith said: "I think the defendant made his agents to make and complete the bargain with the plaintiff, and does not affect the intrinsic character of his action given to the agents, but I think it is admissible as evidence upon the question whether Messrs. Maclean, who were employed by the defendant, were employed to deal according to the usage of the market in which they were brokers, and authority to do what they did in executing the transfer. That is the only importance I attach to the usage of the Stock Exchange."

INSURANCES.

THE LONDON ASSURANCE.
INCORPORATED BY ROYAL CHARTER
OF HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE THE FIRST,
A.D. 1720.

THE Undersigned having been appointed Agents for the above Corporation are prepared to grant Insurances as follows:

Marine Department.

Policies at current rates, payable either here, in London, or at the principal Ports of India, China and Australia.

Fire Department.

Policies issued for long or short periods at current rates.

Life Department.

Policies issued for sums not exceeding £5,000 at reduced rates.

HOLIDAY, WISE & CO.
Hongkong, July 25, 1872. 493

NOTICE.

QUEEN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE Undersigned are prepared to accept Risk on First Class Goods at 1 per cent. not premium per annum.

NORTON & CO., Agents.

Hongkong, May 19, 1881. 238

MAILS.

STEAM FOR
SINGAPORE, PENANG, COLOMBO, ADEN, SUEZ, PORT SAID,
MALTA, MARSEILLES, GIBRALTAR,
BRINDISI, ANCONA, VENICE, AND LONDON; ALSO,
BOMBAY, MADRAS, CALCUTTA, AND AUSTRALIA.

N.B.—*Cargo can be taken on through Bills
of Lading for BATAVIA, PERSIAN GULF PORTS, MARSEILLES, TRISTE, HAMBURG, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.*

THE PENINSULAR AND ORIENTAL STEAM
NAVIGATION COMPANY'S Steam-ship
VERONA, Captain F. SPEER, with Her Majesty's Mails, will be despatched from this for LONDON direct, via SUEZ CANAL and usual Ports of Call, on THURSDAY, 10th June, at 4 p.m.
Cargo will be received on board until 10 a.m. on the day of sailing.

Parcels and Specie (Gold) at the Office until Noon on the day of sailing.
For further Particulars regarding FREIGHT and PASSAGE, apply to the PENINSULAR & ORIENTAL STEAM NAVI GATION COMPANY, GIBRALTAR, Hongkong.

The Undersigned, Value of Passages are reserved to be determined by the Company.
Shippers are particularly requested to note the terms and conditions of the Com pany's Black Bills of Lading.

Passengers desirous of insuring their baggage can do so on application at the Com pany's Office.

E. L. WOODIN,
Acting Superintendent,
Hongkong, June 7, 1887. 107

U. S. MAIL LINE.
PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY.

THROUGH TO NEW YORK, VIA
OVERLAND RAILWAYS, AND TOUCHING
AT YOKOHAMA, AND SAN FRANCISCO.

THE U. S. Mail Steamship CITY OF RIO DE JANEIRO will be despatched for San Francisco, via Yokohama, on THURSDAY, the 30th June, at 3 p.m., taking Passengers and Freight for Japan,
the United States, and Europe.

Through Bills of Lading issued for trans portation to Yokohama and other Japan Ports, to San Francisco, to Atlantic and Inland Cities of the United States, via Over land Railways to Havana, Trinidad, and Dominican, and to ports in Mexico, Central and South America, by the Company's and connecting Steamers.

Through Passage Tickets granted to Europe, France and Germany by all trans-Atlantic lines of Steamers.

RETURN PASSENGERS.—Passengers, who have paid full fare, re-embarking at San Francisco for China or Japan (or vice versa) within six months, will be allowed a discount of 20% from Return Fare. Pre-Paid Re turn Passage Orders, available for one year, will be issued at a Discount of 25% from Return Fare. These allowances do not apply to through fares from China and Japan to Europe.

Consular Invoices to accompany Cargo destined to ports beyond San Francisco, should be sent to the Company's Offices, addressed to the Collector of Customs, San Francisco.

For further information as to Freight or Passage, apply to the Agency of the Company, No. 50, Queen's Road Central.

C. D. HARMAN,
Agent.

Hongkong, June 2, 1887. 1045

NOTICE.

COMPAGNIE DES MESSAGERIES
MARITIMES.

PAQUEBOTS POSTE FRANCAIS.
STEAM FOR
SAIGON, SINGAPORE, BATAVIA,
COLOMBO, ADEN, SUEZ,
PORT SAID,
MEDITERRANEAN AND BLACK SEA PORTS,
MARSEILLES, AND PORTS OF BRAZIL, AND LA PLATA;

LONDON, HAVRE, BORDEAUX,
DUNKIRK AND ANTWERP.

Hongkong, June 11, 1887. 1103

NOW PUBLISHED.

BUDDHISM: ITS HISTORICAL THEORETICAL AND POPULAR
ASPECTS,
BY ERNST J. EITEL, PH.D., TURINO.
THIRD EDITION,
REVISED, WITH ADDITIONS.

Price, L. 1.50.
LANE, CRAWFORD & CO.
Hongkong, August 20, 1884. 1838

CHINA COAST METEOROLOGICAL REGISTER.

JUNE 13.—AT 4 P.M.

Station. Longitude
and Lat.
and
F.M. Temperature Wind
Force
Direction Waves
Force Direction Rain during last 24 hr.
inches.

Manila... 29.81 90 77 SW 3 o - -

Hainan... 29.69 94 90 - - -

Hongkong 29.68 85 75 SW 3 e - -

Amoy... 29.57 76 8 s c - -

Macau... 29.53 77 8 SW 4 o - -

Shanghai... 29.48 76 91 NE 5 o - -

Nagasaki... 29.40 75 5 E 5 o - -

Witoek... 29.39 43 5 SW 5 o - -

Manila... 29.81 90 77 SW 3 o - -

Hainan... 29.69 94 90 - - -

Hongkong 29.68 85 75 SW 3 e - -

Amoy... 29.57 76 8 s c - -

Macau... 29.53 77 8 SW 4 o - -

Shanghai... 29.48 76 91 NE 5 o - -

Nagasaki... 29.40 75 5 E 5 o - -

Witoek... 29.39 43 5 SW 5 o - -

The barometer has risen over Luzon and is steady along the coast except in Nagasaki. The depression mentioned yes terday has passed south of Japan. The temperature is high, the humidity moderate and the weather dry.

Shipping Orders will be granted till Noon. Cargo will be received on board until 4 p.m., Specie and Parcels until 3 p.m. on the 6th July. (Parcels are not to be sent on board; they must be left at the Agency's Office.) Contents and Values of packages are required.

The Company's Steamers will sail
from Southampton to land Passengers and Luggage.

N.B.—Cargo can be taken on through Bills of Lading for the principal places in RUSSIA.

ON THURSDAY, the 7th day of July, 1887, at 4 p.m., the Company's S.S. BRAUNSCHWEIG, Captain STORMER, with MAIIS, PASSENGERS, SPECIE, and CARGO, will leave this port as above, calling at GENOA.

Shipping Orders will be granted till
Noon. Cargo will be received on board until 4 p.m., Specie and Parcels until 3 p.m. on the 6th July. (Parcels are not to be sent on board; they must be left at the Agency's Office.) Contents and Values of packages are required.

The Company's Steamers will sail
from Southampton to land Passengers
and Luggage.

For further Particulars, apply to MELROSES & CO., Agents.

Hongkong, June 11, 1887. 1105

THE CHINA REVIEW.
PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TEN YEARS.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Querries on China and Japan,' has reached its Fourteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person con cerned with China is desirous of obtaining trustworthy information. It in cludes all the preceding Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Science, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature,
Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities,
and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new de parture has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It is hoped that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques on underlying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to the Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Querries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students know ledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the inter change of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are re cited. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Im perial Chinese and Hongkong Services, and the Foreign Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is considerably cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Oldmixon, Eitel, Breitweiser, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs. Balfour, Wattens, Seton Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson
Faber, Kepesh, Parker, Playfair, Giles
Fitz, and Taylor, all well-known names indicative of sound scholarship and thorough masters of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at 60s. per annum, postage included—payable in ad vance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Man ager, China Mail Office.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

All our learned societies should sub scribe to this scholarly and enterprising Re view. North-China Herald.

The China Review is an excellent table of contents. Caledonian Empire.

The publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison with preceding numbers! Caledonian Empire.

The number contains several articles of interest and value. North-China Herald.

The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterizes the publica tion, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Mo nologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Eitel, on the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) in Peking, showing the results of observations made at Peking from 1880 to 1884. Notes on the Dutch Occupa tion of Formosa, by Mr. G. W. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic
of Nan-Han,' and the Notes and Querries are as usual very interesting. North-China

Newspaper.

A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese do well to patronise. Chrysanthemum.

The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interest ing. The opinion paper by Mr. Herbert
A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chi nese' is of much importance in the eyes
of all missionaries, and Mr. E. H. Parker's
'Short Journeys in Szechuan' are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes
a paper of some length entitled 'The Em peror Cheng, founder of the Chinese Em pire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history.
A few short notices of New Books and Notes and Querries, one of which
on Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo
and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete
the number.

Mr. G. W. Phillips' Oriental Record contains
a great deal of information, although most of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic
of Nan-Han,' and the Notes and Querries
are as usual very interesting. North-China

Newspaper.

A goodly instalment of the 'China Review'
is given. The paper by Mr. Herbert
A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chi nese' is of much importance in the eyes
of all missionaries, and Mr. E. H. Parker's
'Short Journeys in Szechuan' are
continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes
a paper of some length entitled 'The Em
peror Cheng, founder of the Chinese Em pire,' which will be read with genuine
interest by students of Chinese history.
A few short notices of New Books and Notes and Querries, one of which
on Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo
and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete
the number.

Mr. G. W. Phillips' Oriental Record contains
a great deal of information, although most of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic
of Nan-Han,' and the Notes and Querries
are as usual very interesting. North-China

Newspaper.

A goodly instalment of the 'China Review'
is given. The paper by Mr. Herbert
A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chi nese' is of much importance in the eyes
of all missionaries, and Mr. E. H. Parker's
'Short Journeys in Szechuan' are
continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes
a paper of some length entitled 'The Em
peror Cheng, founder of the Chinese Em pire,' which will be read with genuine
interest by students of Chinese history.
A few short notices of New Books and Notes and Querries, one of which
on Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo
and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete
the number.

Mr. G. W. Phillips' Oriental Record contains
a great deal of information, although most of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic
of Nan-Han,' and the Notes and Querries
are as usual very interesting. North-China

Newspaper.

A goodly instalment of the 'China Review'
is given. The paper by Mr. Herbert
A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chi nese' is of much importance in the eyes
of all missionaries, and Mr. E. H. Parker's
'Short Journeys in Szechuan' are
continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes
a paper of some length entitled 'The Em
peror Cheng, founder of the Chinese Em pire,' which will be read with genuine
interest by students of Chinese history.
A few short notices of New Books and Notes and Querries, one of which
on Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo
and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete
the number.

Mr. G. W. Phillips' Oriental Record contains
a great deal of information, although most of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic
of Nan-Han,' and the Notes and Querries
are as usual very interesting. North-China